I Am A Promise

I am a promise I am a possibility

I am a promise with a capital P

I am a great big bundle of potentiality

I am learning to hear God's voice

I am trying to make the right choice

I am a possibility - anything

He wants me to be

The Headmaster

"I Am A Promise . . ." -- What a fine theme for our yearbook!

We all start the school year with hopes and expectations. Some of them come to pass, some of them do not. Others we only begin to achieve, trusting that with more time and energy, they too will come to pass.

Even more importantly, though, the song which gives us our theme describes all of us as we come into this world, each with unique possibilities as persons. Some of these become realities when we are very young, such as athletic or artistic or academic abilities. Others will appear only as we grow into adulthood and become parents, career persons and community-minded citizens.

In short, who we are today is a reality born out of a promise within us a month ago, or years ago; and who we shall be tomorrow is still a promise within us today. As we study and play together, these promises can blossom in happy and often surprising ways, if we are open to their doing so.

I have been excited to see that happen this year at St. Paul's School among both students and teachers. Next year, as our first Eighth Grade moves toward graduation, I know there will be even more to see among them and among us all. That will be exciting, too!!
